

Ready to kick-start your consulting career?

INTERN (M/F/D), COLOGNE

We are always looking for interns for a duration of 4-6 months.

We empower people and businesses. Day by day.

We are not just management consultants. Globeone is a fusion of ideas, expertise, and experience. We apply our depth and diversity of knowledge to serve as our client's co-pilots and solve the unique challenges they share with us. What we do works, because when you have the right people to solve a problem, you're GO

Eager to make a change?

At Globeone, we work on the principle that our role as consultants is to think, inspire and enable, always while driving forward to a problem's practical solution. It is this belief that defines our interactions with our clients, colleagues, and partners.

As an Intern at Globeone, you are a vital team member of our boutique consulting team with the potential to become a permanent team member. You will work with a collaborative and creative team and get high exposure to a variety of industries (with focus on B2B), from the first day.

Your key responsibilities as an intern will be to:

- Support strategic, branding and communication projects across a wide array of topics in an international environment
- Support daily client management
- Conduct research, analyze data and develop insights and recommendations based on findings
- Support conception and implementation of external market research activities
- Take part in design and realization of top management client presentations
- Support office management tasks

Able to take a challenge?

We are looking for a highly-qualified intern who is ready to bring a fresh perspective.

Your qualification and experience:

- Undergraduate or graduate with majors in Business, Management, Economics, Marketing, or Communications (minimum second year B.A. / B.Sc completed)
- Previous internship or work experience in relevant field
- International experience with work or study abroad
- Excellent verbal and oral communication in English and German is mandatory
- Organized and able to prioritize and perform multiple tasks simultaneously with a "can-do" attitude in new and challenging situations
- Significant experience with MS Office (PowerPoint, Word and Excel) as well as robust analytical skills

Are you GO? Get in touch!

Due to the new data regulations in the EU we are no longer processing applications submitted via email or from external job portals. We are happy to receive your application via our website <https://www.globe-one.com/> with all the necessary documents. We apologize for the inconvenience and looking forward to your application on our website.

Follow us on Facebook, LinkedIn or Instagram to see a snapshot of life at Globeone.

